

Coming To A Shore Town Near You: No Pain. No Gain.

Governor Christie To Visit Long Beach Island to Push for Pension and Benefit Reform

For Immediate Release
Wednesday, July 16, 2014

Contact: Michael Drewniak
Kevin Roberts
609-777-2600

Trenton, NJ – On Tuesday, Governor Chris Christie will travel to Long Beach Island to continue to highlight the need for New Jersey to go further on pension and benefits reform in order to protect critical investments and fund essential programs. Long Beach Island is the first of regular conversations this summer where the Governor will make the case for reform and take questions.

Residents can RSVP to GovEvents@gov.state.nj.us.

Tuesday, July 22, 2014

OCEAN COUNTY

WHO: Governor Chris Christie

WHAT: No Pain, No Gain: A Conversation at the Jersey Shore

WHEN: 3:00 p.m.

WHERE: Bay View Park Gazebo
6805 Long Beach Island Boulevard
Long Beach Township, NJ

PRESS: OPEN, No Availability