Mayor White asked Borough Attorney Cipriani to say a few words regarding the new meeting format. She explained that the agenda would be reviewed and that all comments and questions regarding any items listed should be discussed. New business and future actions items for the next meeting may also be considered.

B. BOROUGH COUNCIL DISCUSSION ITEMS, IF ANY.

Finance Committee:	Councilman Amarante
Public Safety Committee:	Councilman Gillingham
Dune and Beach Committee:	Councilman Nelson and Councilman Batcha
Municipal Services Committee:	Mayor White

Municipal Relations Committee:	Councilwoman O’Mealia
Strategic Planning Committee:	Councilman Nelson and Councilwoman O’Mealia
Environmental Committee:	Councilwoman Green
Long Range Planning Committee	Councilwoman O’Mealia
Flood Strategy Committee	Councilwoman O’Mealia

Councilman Amarante reported that there was a slight revision to resolution 2020-33 Reserve Transfer. The Court Administration line item $1,650.00 that was transferred from OE to Salary and Wages is correct in the agenda provided to the public at the meeting. Due to a calculation error, the agenda posted on the website had this item listed as $450.00.

Borough Attorney Cipriani along with Mayor White provided a review of the agenda. NJIIF (New Jersey Intergovernmental Insurance Fund) renewal. The organization insures multiple municipalities. These municipalities join forces to be able to obtain attractive and effective premiums. They are an effective organization that has been very responsive to the borough.

Councilwoman O’Mealia expressed concerns when she was formerly on council that a North Jersey Insurance pool wasn’t aligned with Mantoloking’s geographical location and that a more southern fund may have been a better option. She sought confirmation from mayor, council and counsel that the borough did their due diligence.

Borough Attorney Cipriani discussed that the NJIIF is looking to increase their presence in this area and they have demonstrated that they value Mantoloking. She also explained that the contract for her services that was previously provided was the old model and that she would be imposing a flat fee. A flat fee will provide the borough with a level of certainty regarding budgeting. She will continue to log time and reassess for next year if her fee needs to be adjusted.

Councilwoman O’Mealia asked about the responsibilities for the part time police officer and if the council should consider additional funds to be spent on patrols due to car thefts. She also discusses resident Tony Grella’s concerns regarding Air B & B’s. There was discussion regarding registering with the Police so they know who is in the house. Councilwoman O’Mealia advised that a majority of the community rents their homes and believes that identification is onerous, Councilman Batcha agreed and it is overreaching.

Councilwoman Green shared that there are many elements that impact the community, parking, traffic and noise. Working with the Planning Board to conduct a system to either allow or not to allow Air B & B’ s is important. Borough Attorney Cipriani will draft an ordinance to be circulated to council.

C. PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD

Joanne Lygas, 970 Barnegat Lane, had questions regarding part time police hours worked, hourly rate and medical benefits. Chief Ferris answered Ms. Lygas’s questions. Borough Attorney Cipriani explained the average hours worked over the course of the year would not be sufficient to trigger health benefits.

ADJOURN CAUCUS MEETING:

MOTION: Councilwoman O’Mealia
SECOND: Councilman Amarante
ALL IN FAVOR: Aye

Mayor White stated “several days ago we lost a dear friend Joan Lyons. She was a remarkable woman. She volunteered at Orange Memorial Hospital and also established a Toy Bureau which distributed toys to needy children for almost fifty years. Joan was an integral member of the Mantoloking Beach Association. She always had a smile on her face, was a character and loved playing bridge. Here is an example of a person who gave of herself. I would venture to say this world would be a much better place if we had more Joan Lyons’s walking around it.”

Mayor White officially welcomed Councilwoman O’Mealia to council and noted she will be busy with various committees especially the Flood Committee.

He also welcomed Councilwoman Green stating she will be a tremendous asset to council due to her past experience as Council President and Council member for Bay Head.

AMENDMENT OF RESOLUTION 2020-32

Councilman Gillingham reported that he had spent a significant amount of time developing the salary pattern at the Mayors request which was designed to be consistent, fair and orderly. He brought to the attention of council that one individual had been singled out and wanted to know who did this.

April Yezzi, CFO discussed she had met with Councilman Gillingham and the Mayor in her office and was under the impression due to certain circumstances that Patrick Smith hourly wage would remain the same.
